

The Harvest, the Fruits of Human Work, and the Reverent Use of Creation especially on World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation (1 September) and on last Sunday in September or whenever Harvest Festivals are held.

Background

“The annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation will offer individual believers and communities a fitting opportunity to reaffirm their personal vocation to be stewards of creation, to thank God for the wonderful handiwork which he has entrusted to our care, and to implore his help for the protection of creation as well as his pardon for the sins committed against the world in which we live.” (Pope Francis, Letter inaugurating World Prayer of Care for Creation)

The Church has long celebrated the agricultural harvest. This intention also includes all human work. In all circumstances of human life there are choices to be made regarding the environment and our reverent stewardship of the God’s gift of creation.

“The external deserts in the world are growing, because the internal deserts have become so vast. Therefore the earth’s treasures no longer serve to build God’s garden for all to live in, but they have been made to serve the powers of exploitation and destruction” (Benedict XVI, homily at Inaugural Mass, 2005).

Liturgical Texts

may be used when permitted - see Table of Rubrics

- For the blessing of Man’s Labour
- For Productive Land
- After the Harvest

Prayer

O Lord, good Father, who in your providence have entrusted the earth to the human race, grant, we pray, that with the fruits harvested from it we may be able to sustain life and, with your help, always use them

Roman Missal

Prayer of the Faithful

one of the following may be used or adapted according to local needs

- For a fair and just trade
so that all may receive a just wage for the work of their hands.
- For politicians and all who make decisions that affect the future of the earth may they safeguard the planet for future generations.

Opportunities and Challenges

- The symbols that are used in the liturgy should be authentic — candles made from wax, for example.
- Some areas of the country may be able to use wine that is produced from a local vineyard.
- The celebration of the liturgical seasons can demand the awareness of the natural seasons of the year. The encouragement to eat more locally produced seasonal produce can inform our sense of the passing of liturgical time.
- Consider how this intention links with the intention: Justice and Peace in the World especially on Christ the King: 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Young People

Background

The Church in England and Wales has marked the contribution of young people on Christ the King for many years. Universally it is marked on Palm Sunday. In many parishes it is an opportunity to focus on the role of young people in the Sunday liturgy and in the life of the parish. Over the last few years material prepared to assist the day has used the livesimply campaign [<http://www.livesimply.org.uk>]. There may be a collection for diocesan and nation youth services on this day.

Prayer of the Faithful

one of the following may be used or adapted according to local needs

- For young people, may they grow in Christ
- For all who work with young people, may they show leadership and compassion.

Opportunities and Challenges

- How can young people be integrated into the liturgy through the year?
- What opportunities are there for the formation of young people as liturgical ministers?

Prayer

O God, who gave one origin to all peoples and willed to gather from them one family for yourself, fill all hearts of all young people, we pray, with the fire of your love and kindle in them a desire for the just advancement of their neighbour, that, through the good things which you richly bestow upon all, each human person may be brought to perfection, every division may be removed, and equity and justice may be established in human society.
