

PEOPLE OF SIGNIFICANCE

A STORY OF COMPASSION

Born in London in 1991 to Italian parents who returned to Milan. He was a very devout child, growing a great affection for the Blessed Sacrament and for reciting the Rosary. He had his First Holy Communion when he was seven and from then on rarely missed an opportunity to go to daily Mass. He was very gifted with computers and put his talents to good use. He created a website which catalogued Eucharistic miracles and helped anyone who needed it with anything digital. He said "our aim has to be the infinite and not the finite. The Infinite is our homeland. We have always been expected in Heaven,". He died of Leukaemia when he was just 15, however, during his final weeks he offered his suffering up for the Pope and for the Church.

What's your significant story?

"To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan."

PRAYER

*Oh Father, who gives us many gifts and talents, guide us into using all that we have for the benefit of others. Remind us to think about what will happen to others if we don't help, rather than what will happen to us if we help. Through the intercession of Carlo Acutis bring us to a deeper love of the Eucharist and of those we serve.
Amen*

VENERABLE CARLO ACUTIS

nationalyouthsunday.com

