

Liturgy at Home: Palm Sunday

Introduction

Morning Prayer with readings from Mass and Spiritual Communion. If praying as a family one person leads, the others say the words in bold.

In the name of the Father, ✠ and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 21:1-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
Glory to you, O Lord.

When they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the village facing you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her: untie them and bring them to me. If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, "The Lord has need of them," and he will send them immediately.' This took place to fulfil what was spoken by the prophet, saying, 'Tell the daughter of Sion, Behold, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of an ass.' The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them; they brought the ass and the colt, and put their garments on them, and he sat thereon. Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. And the crowds that went before him and that followed him shouted, 'Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!' And when he entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, 'Who is this?' And the crowds said, 'This is the prophet Jesus from Nazareth of Galilee.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Hymn

Either this one, another of your choosing, or a moment of silence.

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Hark! all the tribes hosanna cry;
O Saviour meek, pursue your road with palms and scattered garments strowed.

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die:
O Christ, your triumphs now begin o'er captive death and conquered sin.

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
The winged squadrons of the sky look down with sad and wond'ring eyes to see th'approaching sacrifice.

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
Your last and fiercest strife is nigh;
the Father on his sapphire throne expects his own anointed Son.

Ride on, ride on in majesty!
In lowly pomp ride on to die;
bow your meek head to mortal pain,
then take, O God, your pow'r and reign.

Psalmody

Psalm 117(118)

Antiphon 1. The crowds of people, who had gathered for the feast day called out to the Lord, *
'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.'

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good,
for his love endures for ever.

Let the sons of Israel say:
'His love endures for ever.'

Let the sons of Aaron say:
'His love endures for ever.'

Let those who fear the Lord say:
'His love endures for ever.'

I called to the Lord in my distress;
he answered and freed me.
The Lord is at my side; I do not fear.
What can man do against me?
The Lord is at my side as my helper;
I shall look down on my foes.

It is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in men;
it is better to take refuge in the Lord
than to trust in princes.

The nations all encompassed me;
in the Lord's name I crushed them.
They compassed me, compassed me about;
in the Lord's name I crushed them.
They compassed me about like bees;
they blazed like a fire among thorns.
In the Lord's name I crushed them.

I was hard-pressed and was falling,
but the Lord came to help me.
The Lord is my strength and my song;
he is my saviour.
There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
his right hand raised me.
The Lord's right hand has triumphed;
I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.
I was punished, I was punished by the Lord,
but not doomed to die.

Open to me the gates of holiness:
I will enter and give thanks.
This is the Lord's own gate
where the just may enter.
I will thank you for you have answered and you are my saviour.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.
This is the work of the Lord,
a marvel in our eyes.
This day was made by the Lord;
we rejoice and are glad.

O Lord, grant us salvation;
O Lord, grant success.
Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes.
We bless you from the house of the Lord;
the Lord God is our light.

Go forward in procession with branches
even to the altar.
You are my God, I thank you.
My God, I praise you.
Give thanks to the Lord for he is good;
for his love endures for ever.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Antiphon 1. The crowds of people, who had gathered for the feast day called out to the Lord,
'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.'

Canticle: Daniel 3:52-57

Antiphon 2. May we be counted among the faithful, * with the angels and with the children.
Triumphant over death, we sing with them, 'Hosanna in the highest.'

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

Blest your glorious holy name.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

You are blest in the temple of your glory.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

You are blest who gaze into the depths.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

You are blest in the firmament of heaven.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

You who walk on the wings of the wind.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

May they bless you, the saints and the angels.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

From the heavens, the earth and the sea.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Antiphon 2. May we be counted among the faithful, with the angels and with the children.
Triumphant over death, we sing with them, 'Hosanna in the highest.'

Psalm 150

Antiphon 3. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; * peace in heaven; glory in the highest heavens.

Praise God in his holy place, praise him in his mighty heavens.
Praise him for his powerful deeds, praise his surpassing greatness.

O praise him with sound of trumpet, praise him with lute and harp.
Praise him with timbral and dance,
praise him with strings and pipes.

O praise him with resounding cymbals,
praise him with clashing of cymbals.
Let everything that lives and that breathes give praise to the Lord.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Antiphon 3. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; peace in heaven; glory in the highest heavens.

Collect of the Day

Let us pray.

Almighty ever-living God, who as an example of humility for the human race to follow caused our Saviour to take flesh and submit to the Cross, graciously grant that we may heed his lesson of patient suffering and so merit a share in his Resurrection.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear.

For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle.

The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 21(22):8-9,17-20,23-24

℟ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

All who see me deride me.
They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him;
let him release him if this is his friend.' **℟

Many dogs have surrounded me,
a band of the wicked beset me.
They tear holes in my hands and my feet
I can count every one of my bones. **℟

They divide my clothing among them.
They cast lots for my robe.
O Lord, do not leave me alone,
my strength, make haste to help me! **℟

I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled.
'You who fear the Lord give him praise;
all sons of Jacob, give him glory.
Revere him, Israel's sons. **℟

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians.

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave and became as men are; and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross.

But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory!

Christ was humbler yet,
even to accepting death, death on a cross.
But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all names.
Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory!

Gospel Reading: Matthew 26:14-27:66

If there are a few of you in your household you can split the passion up into the four parts given below, or three parts with all of you doing the 'crowd' voice together, or if there are two of you one could narrate and the other do all the other parts.

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

[N] Narrator [O] Other [C] Crowd [J] Jesus

Judas agrees to betray Jesus

[N] One of the Twelve, the man called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said, [O] What are you prepared to give me if I hand him over to you? [N] They paid him thirty silver pieces, and from that moment he looked for an opportunity to betray him.

The Passover with the Disciples

[N] Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus to say, [C] Where do you want us to make the preparations for you to eat the passover? [N] He replied: [J] Go to so-and-so in the city and say to him, 'The Master says: My time is near. It is at your house that I am keeping Passover with my disciples.' [N] The disciples did what Jesus told them and prepared the Passover.

When evening came he was at table with the twelve disciples. And while they were eating he said: [J] I tell you solemnly, one of you is about to betray me. [N] They were greatly distressed and started asking him in turn, [C] Not I, Lord, surely? [N] He answered, [J] Someone who has dipped his hand into the dish with me will betray me. The Son of Man is going to his fate, as the scriptures say he will, but alas for that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! Better for that man if he had never been born! [N] Judas, who was to betray him, asked in his turn, [O] Not I, Rabbi, surely? [N] Jesus answered: [J] They are your own words.

The Institution of the Last Supper

[N] Now as they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: [J] Take it and eat; this is my body.

[N] Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, saying: [J] Drink, all of you, from this, for this is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. From now on, I tell you, I shall not drink wine until the day I drink the new wine with you in the kingdom of my Father.

Peter's Denial Foretold

[N] After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them, [J] You will all lose faith in me this night, for the scripture says: 'I shall strike the shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered,' but after my resurrection I shall go before you to Galilee.

[N] At this, Peter said, [O] Though all lose faith in you, I will never lose faith. [N] Jesus answered him, [J] I tell you solemnly, this very night, before the cock crows, you will have disowned me three times. [N] Peter said to him, [O] Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you. [N] And all the disciples said the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

Then Jesus came with them to a small estate called Gethsemane; and he said to his disciples, [J] Stay here while I go over there to pray. [N] He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee with him. And sadness came over him, and great distress. Then he said to them, [J] My soul is sorrowful to the point of death. Wait here and keep awake with me. [N]

And going on a little further he fell on his face and prayed: [J] My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass me by. Nevertheless, let it be as you, not I, would have it. [N] He came back to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter: [J] So you had not the strength to keep awake with me one hour? You should be awake, and praying not to be put to the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak. [N]

Again, a second time, he went away and prayed: [J] My Father, if this cup cannot pass by without my drinking it, your will be done! [N] And he came back again and found them sleeping, their eyes were so heavy.

Leaving them there, he went away again and prayed for the third time, repeating the same words. Then he came back to the disciples and said to them, [J] You can sleep on now and take your rest. Now the hour has come when the Son of Man is to be betrayed into the hands of sinners. Get up! Let us go! My betrayer is already close at hand.

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

[N] He was still speaking when Judas, one of the Twelve, appeared, and with him a large number of men armed with swords and clubs, sent by the chief priests and elders of the people.

Now the traitor had arranged a sign with them. He had said, [O] 'The one I kiss, he is the man. Take him in charge.' [N] So he went straight up to Jesus and said, [O] Greetings, Rabbi. [N] and kissed him. Jesus said to him, [J] My friend, do what you are here for. [N] Then they came forward, seized Jesus and took him in charge. At that, one of the followers of Jesus grasped his sword and drew it; he struck out at the high priest's servant, and cut off his ear.

Jesus then said, [J] Put your sword back, for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. Or do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father who would promptly send more than twelve legions of angels to my defence? But then, how would the scriptures be fulfilled that say this is the way it must be? [N] It was at this time that Jesus said to the crowds, [J] Am I a brigand, that you had to set out to capture me with swords and clubs? I sat teaching in the Temple day after day and you never laid hands on me. [N] Now all this happened to fulfil the prophecies in scripture. Then all the disciples deserted him and ran away.

Jesus before the High Priest

The men who had arrested Jesus led him off to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. Peter followed him at a distance, and when he reached the high priest's palace, he went in and sat down with the attendants to see what the end would be. The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus, however false, on which they might pass the death sentence. But they could not find any, though several lying witnesses came forward.

Eventually two stepped forward and made a statement, [O] This man said: 'I have power to destroy the Temple of God and in three days build it up.' [N] The high priest then stood up and said to him, [O] Have you no answer to that? What is this evidence these men are bringing against you? [N] But Jesus was silent.

And the high priest said to him, [O] I put you on oath by the living God to tell us if you are the Christ, the Son of God. [N] Jesus answered: [J] The words are your own. Moreover, I tell you that from this time onward you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven. [N]

At this, the high priest tore his clothes and said, [O] He has blasphemed. What need of witnesses have we now? There! You have just heard the blasphemy. What is your opinion? [N] They answered, [C] He deserves to die. [N] Then they spat in his face and hit him with their fists; others said as they struck him, [C] Play the prophet, Christ! Who hit you then?

Peter Denies Jesus

[N] Meanwhile Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant-girl came up to him and said, [O] You too were with Jesus the Galilean. [N] But he denied it in front of them all, saying: [O] I do not know what you are talking about. [N] When he went out to the gateway another servant-girl saw him and said to the people there, [O] This man was with Jesus the Nazarene. [N] And again, with an oath, he denied it: [O] I do not know the man.

[N] A little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, [C] You are one of them for sure! Why, your accent gives you away. [N] Then he started calling down curses on himself and swearing: [O] I do not know the man. [N] At that moment the cock crew, and Peter remembered what Jesus had said, 'Before the cock crows you will have disowned me three times.' And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Jesus Brought before Pilate

When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people met in council to bring about the death of Jesus. They had him bound, and led him away to hand him over to Pilate, the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

When he found that Jesus had been condemned, Judas his betrayer was filled with remorse and took the thirty silver pieces back to the chief priests and elders, saying: [O] I have sinned. I have betrayed innocent blood. [N] They replied: [C] What is that to us? That is your concern. [N] And flinging down the silver pieces in the sanctuary he made off and hanged himself.

The chief priests picked up the silver pieces and said, [C] It is against the Law to put this into the treasury: it is blood-money. [N] So they discussed the matter and bought the potter's field with it as a graveyard for foreigners, and this is why the field is called the Field of Blood today. The words of the prophet Jeremiah were then fulfilled: 'And they took the thirty silver pieces, the sum at which the precious One was priced by children of Israel, and they gave them for the potter's field, just as the Lord directed me.'

Pilate Questions Jesus

Jesus, then, was brought before the governor, and the governor put to him this question: [O] Are you the king of the Jews? [N] Jesus replied, [J] It is you who say it. [N] But when he was accused by the chief priests and the elders he refused to answer at all. Pilate then said to him, [O] Do you not hear how many charges they have brought against you? [N] But to the governor's complete amazement, he offered no reply to any of the charges.

Barabbas or Jesus?

At festival time it was the governor's practice to release a prisoner for the people, anyone they chose. Now there was at that time a notorious prisoner whose name was Barabbas. So when the crowd gathered, Pilate said to them, [O] Which do you want me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ? [N] For Pilate knew it was out of jealousy that they had handed him over. Now as he was seated in the chair of judgement, his wife sent him a message, [O] Have nothing to do with that man; I have been upset all day by a dream I had about him.

[N] The chief priests and the elders, however, had persuaded the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas and the execution of Jesus. So when the governor spoke and asked them, [O] Which of the two do you want me to release for you? [N] they said, [C] Barabbas. [N] Pilate said to them: [O] But in that case, what am I to do with Jesus who is called Christ? [N] They all said: [C] Let him be crucified! [N] Pilate asked: [O] Why? What harm has he done? [N] But they shouted all the louder, [C] Let him be crucified!

Pilate Delivers Jesus to be Crucified

[N] Then Pilate saw that he was making no impression, that in fact a riot was imminent. So he took some water, washed his hands in front of the crowd and said, [O] I am innocent of this man's blood. It is your concern. [N] And the people, to a man, shouted back, [C] His blood be on us and on our children! [N] Then he released Barabbas for them. He ordered Jesus to be first scourged and then handed over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

The governor's soldiers took Jesus with them into the Praetorium and collected the whole cohort round him. Then they stripped him and made him wear a scarlet cloak, and having twisted some thorns into a crown they put this on his head and placed a reed in his right hand.

To make fun of him they knelt to him saying, [C] Hail, king of the Jews! [N] And they spat on him and took the reed and struck him on the head with it. And when they had finished making fun of him, they took off the cloak and dressed him in his own clothes and led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion of Jesus

On their way out, they came across a man from Cyrene, Simon by name, and enlisted him to carry his cross. When they had reached a place called Golgotha, that is, the place of the skull, they gave him wine to drink mixed with gall, which he tasted but refused to drink.

When they had finished crucifying him they shared out his clothing by casting lots, and then sat down and stayed there keeping guard over him. Above his head was placed the charge against him; it read: 'This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.' At the same time two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left.

The passers-by jeered at him; they shook their heads and said, [C] So you would destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days! Then save yourself! If you are God's son, come down from the cross! [N] The chief priests with the scribes and elders mocked him in the same way, saying: [C] He saved others; he cannot save himself. He is the king of Israel; let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. He puts his trust in God; now let God rescue him if he wants him. For he did say, 'I am the son of God.' [N] Even the robbers who were crucified with him taunted him in the same way.

The Death of Jesus

From the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a loud voice, [J] Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? [N] That is, 'My God, my God, why have you deserted me?'

When some of those who stood there heard this, they said, [C] The man is calling on Elijah. [N] and one of them quickly ran to get a sponge which he dipped in vinegar and, putting it on a reed, gave it him to drink. The rest of them said: [C] Wait! See if Elijah will come to save him. [N] But Jesus, again crying out in a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

[N] At that, the veil of the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom; the earth quaked; the rocks were split; the tombs opened and the bodies of many holy men rose from the dead, and these, after his resurrection, came out of the tombs, entered the Holy City and appeared to a number of people.

Meanwhile the centurion, together with the others guarding Jesus, had seen the earthquake and all that was taking place, and they were terrified and said, [C] In truth this was a son of God. [N] And many women were there, watching from a distance, the same women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and looked after him. Among them were Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

The Burial of Jesus

When it was evening, there came a rich man of Arimathaea, called Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate thereupon ordered it to be handed over.

So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean shroud and put it in his own new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a large stone across the entrance of the tomb and went away. Now Mary of Magdala and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the sepulchre.

The Guard at the Tomb

Next day, that is, when Preparation Day was over, the chief priests and the Pharisees went in a body to Pilate and said to him, [C] Your Excellency, we recall that this impostor said, while he was still alive, 'After three days I shall rise again.' Therefore give the order to have the sepulchre kept secure until the third day, for fear his disciples come and steal him away and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' This last piece of fraud would be worse than what went before. [N] Pilate said to them: [O] You may have your guard. Go and make all as secure as you know how. [N] So they went and made the sepulchre secure, putting seals on the stone and mounting a guard.

Reflection

If you are praying as a family this would be a fitting place to have a moment of sharing on how the Scriptures have spoken to you today.

Spiritual Communion

All sit in silence for a few moments, then we pray together asking Jesus to make his home in our heart:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Thanksgiving and Conclusion

Gospel Canticle: Luke 1:68-79 (Benedictus)

Benedictus Antiphon. Holding bright palm fronds, * we prostrate ourselves before the Lord as he comes. And so let us come running with songs and hymns, giving glory to God and saying 'Blessed be the Lord!'

Blessed be the Lord, ✠ the God of Israel!
He has visited his people and redeemed them.

He has raised up for us a mighty saviour in the house of David his servant,
as he promised by the lips of holy men,
those who were his prophets from of old.

A saviour who would free us from our foes,
from the hands of all who hate us.
So his love for our fathers is fulfilled and his holy covenant remembered.

He swore to Abraham our father to grant us,
that free from fear,
and saved from the hands of our foes,
we might serve him in holiness and justice
all the days of our life in his presence.

As for you, little child,
you shall be called a prophet of God,
the Most High.

You shall go ahead of the Lord to prepare his ways before him,

To make known to his people their salvation through forgiveness of all their sins, the loving-kindness of the heart of our God who visits us like the dawn from on high.

He will give light to those in darkness,
those who dwell in the shadow of death,
and guide us into the way of peace.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.
